Typical Comments:

Guidance Counselor: "Everyone enjoyed the humor you incorporated while sending a solid message that each person is unique and special and that they should always do what they know is right in spite of what others may think. We really stress the importance of the Six Pillars of Character at Mead and you helped reinforce the values we want to instill in all our students." - Carol LaFleur, Mead Junior High School, Elk Grove, IL

Student: "You were very hilarious...I hope that one day everyone will get your message and be happy with who they are" - Rachel

School Teacher: "Junior High is a tough crowd and you held them in the palm of your hand." - Kevin H. Brown, Orland Junior High School, Orland Park, IL

Junior High Principal: "You were able to maintain the attention of our entire student body throughout the whole program. Your understanding of the middle level student was a key to your ability to effectively communicate with them." - R.D.Crowe, Principal, Parkview Junior High School, New Castle, IN School Newspaper: "Some lessons that the students learned include: we are all unique; we don't always have to fit in; it is not always necessary to say yes." - St. Paul Reporter, St. Paul Catholic School, Grosse Pointe Farms, MI

PTO President: "One of our eighth grade boy's mother said that he and his sixth grade sister came rushing in the door to tell them how wonderful the assembly was!" - Tammy Chmielewski, St. Patrick School
